

Creating - Evaluating - Analyzing - Applying - Understanding - Remembering

Nancy Polette: Research Reports to knock your teacher's socks off!

<http://www.nancypolette.com/home.asp>

Take a look at these Creative Ways for Students to Report Information!

FOR RENT (Animal Report)

The Information Animal: Buffalo DATA BANK	Eats: Grass Small plants Willow twigs Low shrubs	Looks Like: Large head Large neck Brownish-black 10-12 feet long 2000-3000 pounds
Has Humped shoulders Long course hair Beard on throat Horns Short tail	Lives In herds On the plains Yellowstone Park Canada	What it does Grazes Mothers defend calves Lives 30-40 years Takes 5 years to become fully grown Loses temper easily

The Model

For Rent: One _____

It's the handiest thing ever because it can _____

And _____

And _____

And the greatest thing about it is _____

The Report

For Rent: One Buffalo

It's the handiest thing you'll ever rent since it can graze on your lawn to keep it mowed

It can defend you against bullies.

It makes a great 2000 pound paperweight

And the greatest thing about it is it lives 30 to 40 years!

FACT or FICTION BOOK (Place report)

Fact or Fiction?	Fact
 For hundreds of years Russia was called “the sleeping bear of the world.”	Long after other countries had modern factories, the people of Russia were still farmers, using the same hand tools their ancestors used to till the land. There were no modern factories until the 1900’s

Fact or Fiction Book:

1. On one page make a statement about the place and ask your reader if it is fact or fiction.
2. On the next page tell your reader whether the statement is fact or fiction and why.
3. Your book can have as many pages as you wish.