Who is the main character of this story?

List 3 words that describe the main character.
What is the setting of this story?

Is there a problem in this story? What is it?

Predict what will happen next.

Find a noun in the book. Is it a person, place or thing?

Find an adjective (describing word) in the book. What does the adjective describe?

Find a verb (action word) in the book.

Make a text-to-self connection.

Make a text-to-world connection.

Make a text-to-text connection.

In 3 sentences or less, tell what this story is about.

Who is the author of this book?

Who is the illustrator of this book?

In what year was this book published?

Find a word that you have not seen before. What do you think it means?

Why do you think the author chose this title for the book?

From whose point of view is this story being told?

Which character in this story is most like you? Why?
What is the genre of this book?

Use the events in this story to create a math story problem.

Choose 1 sentence and read it aloud with amazing expression!

Are there any features that make this story easier to read (headings, bold print, etc.)?

How do you think this story will end?